DELIVERY STATUS OF YOUR FRENCH BULLDOG PUPPY
State of Emergency At NEW YORK VIP PET RE LOCATOR VET DEPARTMENT

Dear Client,

Accept warm greetings once more from the entire staff of VIP Pet Re locators Transportation services responsible for the transportation and home delivery of your French bulldog Puppy.

We wish to inform you that your puppy arrived safely at LaGuardia Airport — Queens, NY .However the has been put on a MINI QUARANTINE. This is due to the fact that an infected Siberian Husky puppy on transit from Norfolk VA was tested positive of a very contagious disease, Parvo Virus (Parvo). For this reason all pets at the airport have been sent on a 6 to 12 hours Mini Quarantine which started 6 while ago for observation and/or treatment.

The airline responsible for the transportation of the sick puppy will be sued by our company lawyers and compensations will be paid to all concerned customers. Given that your puppy is fully insured, you will not be paying anything for the quarantine. After 6 to 12 hours of observation and/or treatment, We will get the results from our veterinarians and proceed with shipping of your puppy if not infected .

We apologize for the delay and inconvenience, but we can assure you that the puppy will be put on the next available flight to your location after observation. Everything being equal. we will keep you updated

THE PUPPY WILL BE COMING ALONG SIDE TWO OF OUR CARGO DELIVERY AGENTS
Mr. Nathan J William & Mr. Peterson Lena

WE OFFER DOOR TO DOOR DELIVERY
YOUR SATISFACTION IS OUR GREATEST PRIORITY
