Dear Maria,

Thank you for following up.

Please accept our sincere apologies for not being able to deliver your order as promptly as you expected.

I have checked your order and it shows that it is still in transit. As much as we would like to deliver the product to you as soon as possible, there are circumstances that it gets delayed that are beyond our control.

We are very grateful to each and every one of our customers and in return, we always strive to give back by giving our best. However, this is really something that is beyond our control. We are in continuous communication with our shipping partner to make sure that they too are doing their best to deliver our products as soon as possible.

We are requesting more of your continued patience and rest assured that we will follow-up on this order.

Best regards,

ARA
