My darling future wife,

Honey, you have changed my life completely. You're the one who makes me beautiful. You're the one who makes me strong. You're the one who makes me feel so important; you're everything to me.

You show your love to me every day. I thank God that I have found a woman like you. All that I can offer you is a family. I can offer you a family that will stick together through the good and the bad. I can offer you a family that will support each other every day. Honey, I want to share everything I have ever worked for in life with you and live together till we are grey headed...I hope that's what you want.

I really wish that you were near me. I wish that I could just call your name when I needed you and that you would be there. However, knowing that you love me so much is enough for now, and if I had two lives; I would give one to you and give the other up for you, then I would wait forever to be with you. You're the only one that I want babe, pls enjoy this song until we finally meet.
