Hi sweetie,

I hope this mail makes you happy and in good spirits, well it is said that behind every successful man there is a woman. As you know I have been working on a long term project for 2 years with the government in South Africa.

I just want to let you know all about my profession. I work as a chemical/petroleum engineer, I use my knowledge of geological principles to determine the location and size of crude oil deposits. I operate as a governmental agency, but more as an independent contractor, exploring different locations and pinpointing oil reserves. Also I make use of advanced computer technology to survey a region so that I can inform other experts how and where to drill. Exploring land and ocean sea beds for oil deposits. I really want to let you know everything that my contract entails being part of my life as the woman I want to share my joy with.

My contract was awarded to me following the routine contract bidding I attended with the EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION OF PETRO/CHEM ENGINEERS contract agent i registered with in France. I am assigned to construct an open pit mining operation and safety control of dust in the mines in order for the platinum and other mineral resources to be harvested safely by the mining companies in South Africa. The South Africa government awarded me the contract and my contract payment worth (USD) 14million. I hope to complete this project in barely 2 weeks before i finally get paid.

Nevertheless I have barely a week to be here and plan to come see you directly from here so we could make arrangements for the best of our future and come together. I think with all i am going to be paid and at my age i would love to retire to a life of blissful love and harmony with you and we could set up our own company knowing that you are 100% when it comes to work, life is beyond just achievements and the best thing in life is to be truly loved by someone in a way that you see every other thing not so important as the loved one. I am so happy you are a reason for me to live now.

Sweetheart, my preparations for the future that's ahead of us is top priority to me because I want to satisfy every one of your desires
