

We are a certified company (see attached) and we have nothing to do with any illegal activities. We are looking for long term relationships and need responsible people. The reputation of a business is essential to its survival. The trust and confidence of people can have a direct and profound effect on a company's bottom and we do not need any negative feedback from our clients.