Terms and Conditions

- Before starting the shipping process, we must verify if you can pay for your purchase. We cannot deliver the item without having the guarantee you really had enough money, in order to pay for it. In the past we sent the items without asking for any payment proof in advance, but many people failed to obtain the bank loan and we lost time and money.
- First of all, both parties agree to terms and conditions of the transaction, which includes a description of the item and sale price.
- When payment is received, it will be verified and secured into a non-interest bearing trust account. Upon payment verification, eBay starts the shipping process. eBay verifies that the buyer receives the item.
- Once the item is delivered, the buyer has a five (5) days inspection period. After the inspection period is over, the buyer will contact eBay with the results of the inspection.
- To protect you against the risk of liability, eBay holds the buyer's funds pursuant to the terms of the eBay Purchase Protection Policy, and any other agreement entered between eBay and its customers.
- eBay Purchase Protection is a unique benefit that offers you protection from unwarranted refunds, allowing you to accept more high-risk orders. For all eligible transactions, we will completely reimburse you for any refunds resulting from claims of unauthorized purchases and non-receipt of goods.
- If, for any reason, the item does not pass the buyer's inspection, it will be returned to the seller, on seller's expense and the funds will be returned to the buyer, in full within 24 hours.
