A screenshot of a live chat interface. The chat window is titled 'Uptown' and has a green header bar. The chat history shows three messages: a green bubble from the user saying 'there is everything you need to know about our company in our website ..', a green bubble from 'Uptown' asking 'would that be all ?', and a grey bubble from the user asking 'I dont see your address. I would like to have my shipper pick up that piano and deliver to me.'. Below the chat is a text input field with the placeholder 'Type here to send your message' and icons for thumbs up, attachment, and emojis. A green circular button with a white 'X' is at the bottom right of the chat area. To the right of the chat is a vertical scrollbar and a 'Close All' button. At the bottom of the screen is a Windows taskbar with system icons for network, volume, and battery, and a notification area showing the time '3:08 PM' and date '10/3/2023' along with a notification icon with the number '2'.

Uptown

we are a moving company .

would that be all you need to know about the piano ?

Uptown

I have a mover near Fresno, as I lived there before, and I've contacted them to pick up that piano and move it to me. I know them and they will do it for me. Can I do that?

A screenshot of a live chat window. The header is green with a white profile icon and the name 'Uptown'. The chat area shows a sequence of messages: a green bubble with 'yes' from 'Uptown', a grey bubble with 'OK', another green bubble with 'OK', and a larger green bubble with the question 'do you want me to proceed with the delivery process ?' from 'Uptown'. Below this is a grey bubble with 'Yes'. At the bottom of the chat area is a white input field with the placeholder text 'Type here to send your message' and icons for thumbs up, attachments, and emojis. A green circular button with a white 'X' is positioned below the input field. To the right of the chat window is a vertical scrollbar and a 'Dismiss All' button. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom, showing system icons and the time '3:18 PM 10/3/2023'.

A screenshot of a web chat interface. The chat header shows a profile icon and the name 'Uptown'. The chat history contains three messages: a green message from 'Uptown' asking to check spam folders, a grey message from the user saying 'ok hold', and another grey message from the user stating they don't have Zelle and need cash on delivery or a certified bank check. At the bottom, there is a text input field with the placeholder 'Type here to send your message' and icons for thumbs up, attachments, and emojis. A large green circular button with a white 'X' is positioned below the input field. The right side of the image shows a vertical scrollbar and a 'Dismiss All' button. The Windows taskbar at the bottom displays the time as 3:39 PM on 10/3/2023, along with system icons for network, battery, and volume, and a notification icon with a '2' badge.

Thats very unfortunate David. And most unfortunate for you that I have all your information, IP address, real location, your scam reviews all over the internet for what you're doing. Im a reserve Deputy Sherriff and you just made a very grave mistake.
