Type of a scam Employment

Actually I am looking for a job for the past 2 months since I got laid off. Esther, Lee emailed me with the email address:

info@oceanskyltd.com and request me to include A person Named mark with the email address: mark@oceanskyltd.com through teams which I did. He started to explain the process via teams' message. No direct phone conversation. he requested me to join 8:00 AM the next day. I have the teams conversation with him since Nove 15, 2023. He informed me that they provide training and pay $35/hr and after a week of training $75/hr for Project Manager's position. I was eager to join the team. I was asking about the team and no repsonse. he mentioned that the trainer will explain things during the training. then the next day he provided list of items for training prep requirements. i checked the list it had the following items.

[11:42 AM] Bernard Mark

*Apple MacBook pro 2020 edition

*HP higher definition jet printer

*fast internet

*IBM laptop

*Apple iPad Pro (2021)

* Cordial Log Extension (Company Edition) CLE

* uAttend Biometric Time Clock System for Ma

*Polycom RealPresence EduCart 500, 7200-64910-001

* Polycom RealPresence EduCart Software License Key

*Altnwork Signature Station

*File Folders

*Sorters

*Data Storage and Microfiche

*Inks and Ribbons

*Surge Protectors

*Computer Hardware.

*Time Tracker

Then I am like why do I need all these things since I have masters in PM. He went around the bushes and said that they can pay for the training material. i was happy since I don't have to pay a penny for the training. Next day i received $5000 check via UPS overnight. He immediately told me to deposit in the ATm the same day which I did. The vendor information is below...

Account name: Johanna Rodriguez

Account Type : Checking Account

Account number: 0333408912

Routing number: 062005690

Bank Address: 1900 5th Ave North Birmingham, AL 35203

Bank name: Regions bank

I paid $25 for the wire. For some reason i had a doubt why can't they pay for the vendor ? I asked him then he said it is not the part of the vendor agreement along those lines. I immediately informed him that I am not interested in SORRY. He was fine. Then i want to explore more on this and see where it goes...CURIOSITY MIND....then i told him to send the training materials and I will continue the training. then he said that I have to buy another set of material (software). He will send another check which he did 12/15. I am astonished to see another check for $5000. I got really suspicious. i told him to send the training materials which we paid first. If not I am not going to deposit the check. Now he says that I have to wire transfer the money to the vendor the second time. I told him that I am not going to deposit the check and going to VOID it. He told me if I do that he will inform the CREDIT. Immediately I told him that I paid $50 for the wire transfer which i will take out of the check. he said OK. I am going to wire transer the check and update you all.... so far i did not spend any money but i don't know where it will lead to so i decided to inform you to track this guy. I would like to talk to somebody about this from your dept. I don't know whether this is a real company or SCAMMERS working like this. I need some guidance PLEASE!!!! I called my bank that they told me the check may bounce back after few weeks that time I am liable for $10000. I am going to loose $10000. I called the bank and they informed the checks look fake. they might bounce back in few weeks then I am responsible for those $10,000. I haven't received the trianing materials yet.

Initialy they mentioned that they are going to send the training materials. I though it was free. Mark initially told few materials which I mentioned then he said software again another $5000. i never got the training materials to start my training. Its a scam. I don't want the first 2 checks which i deposited and wire transfer should not bounce back. I deposited the third check which is going to get credited by this monday. Mark is requesting me to send the money via zelle now. I am not going to answer him. FBI and Chase bank told this is a real scam!!!for sure. Attaching the file which copied the teams conversation between Mark and me.

Mark's ph# for now:707-563-9784. I deposited the third check then realized if that check bounce back then i am at $15000 loss. So I did not transfer the $5000 to the account info provided by mark. It got deposited into my account. I did not Wire transfer like other 2 checks. I used his email provided to connect with him via teams. The team conversations are available in the following link.

I have copied certain parts into another document. I can provide that document if the teams conversation has been delete.

thanks,
