Halló everyone!

Joana again 😊

Please read this email carefully!

I'm super excited to be meeting you all soon and having an amazing time exploring Iceland together!

Alright, so this should be the second email you are getting from me. So, if you haven't received the last one, check your spam folder and let me know if you can't find it.

Attached on this email is the itinerary for our trip. Bear in mind that schedules might be subject to change due to unexpected events that go beyond my control. In any case, once the tour starts, I will keep you updated and give you information on daily basis through our EF chat.

Here are a few points I'd like to review:

1. If you haven't filled the form I've send you in the last email, do it now it takes 2 minutes. You can find it HERE!
2. Packing: Even though it is a personal thing, I very much recommend bringing a cabin sized suitcase as a carry-on. Make sure you read the last email I sent you with all the recommended items or clothing/gear to bring with you 😊 If you have any questions just send me an email!
3. Free Time: I know many of you want to plan extra activities on your free time, so on the itinerary you will see marked as "free time" the hours that you are free to make your own plans 😊 I ask you to leave a 1-hour window after we finish our activities just in case of any unforeseen delays that might occur.
4. Tipping: As I mentioned on the first email tipping is appreciated as a form of appreciation for good service when visiting Iceland. Restaurants typically include service charges in the bill. Tipping is much appreciated. 10% in restaurant is a good tip. Also, EF ultimate break encourages you to tip the Tour Director at the end of the tour at the farewell dinner, the suggested amount is 10-12$ per day in dollars.

5. Arrival information: A few days prior to departure I will send you an email with arrival instructions. If you have any queries regarding your flights, layovers, airports, please contact EF directly.

Feel free to reach out! Very looking forward to meeting you all soon 😊

Best,

Joana Reis
